The priest blesses us.
The priest or deacon may say,
“Go in peace.”
We say,
“Thanks be to God.”
We go out to live as
Jesus’ followers.

We welcome one another.
We stand and sing.
We pray the Sign of the Cross.
The priest says,
“The Lord be with you.”
We answer,
“And with your spirit.”

We gather with our parish.
We remember and celebrate what Jesus said and did at the Last Supper.

We ask God and one another
for forgiveness.
We praise God as we sing,
“Glory to God in the highest,
and on earth peace to people of good will.”

4

Then the priest invites us to share in the Eucharist.
As people receive the Body and Blood of Christ, they answer,
“Amen.”

While this is happening, we sing a song of thanks.

13

We get ready to receive Jesus.
Together we pray or sing the
Our Father. Then we share a sign of peace.
We say,
“Peace be with you.”

The Liturgy of the Word

We listen to two readings from the Bible.
After each one, the reader says,
“The word of the Lord.”
We answer,
“Thanks be to God.”

5

Then the priest takes the cup of wine.
He says,
“TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU,
AND DRINK FROM IT, FOR
THIS IS THE CHALICE OF MY BLOOD. . . .”

We stand to say aloud what we believe as Catholics.
Then we pray for the Church
and all people.
After each prayer we say,
“Lord, hear our prayer.”

7

We stand and sing Alleluia.
The priest or deacon reads the Gospel.
Then he says,
“The Gospel of the Lord.”
We answer,
“Praise to you,
Lord Jesus Christ.”

We sing or pray,
“Amen.”

We believe Jesus Christ is really present in the Eucharist.

11

The Liturgy of the Eucharist

The priest prepares the altar.
People bring gifts of bread and wine to the priest.
The priest prepares these gifts.
We pray,
“Blessed be God for ever.”

Then we remember what Jesus said and did at the Last Supper.
The priest takes the bread.
He says,
“TAKE THIS, ALL OF YOU, AND EAT OF IT, FOR THIS IS MY BODY, WHICH WILL BE GIVEN UP FOR YOU.”
